Early Disposition Clarification Request.pdf; cm-110.pdf;

Dear Counsel for Defendants,

Enclosed please find Plaintiff's formal letter regarding the position on jury trial versus pretrial settlement, along with a copy of California Judicial Council Form CM-110.

Plaintiff's choice to utilize this form is not intended to impose state court procedural rules upon Defendant, but rather reflects the form's visualized and structured question-and-response framework, which serves as a practical tool to facilitate initial communication and clarification of positions between the parties.

This format (CM-110) is conducive to clearly expressing each party's views regarding the case's disputed issues, procedural direction, and potential resolution, and will also support the orderly progression of case management efforts. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that Defendant complete the relevant portions of the form to assist in this structured exchange.

Please respond via email no later than seven (7) days from the date of this letter (i.e., by April 11, 2025). As stated in the attached correspondence, Plaintiff will determine subsequent procedural steps based on Defendant's response.

Sincerely,
Lianlian Porth / PRO SE

Subject: Request for Defendant's Position on Jury Trial vs. Pretrial Settlement

Subheading: Completion of Judicial Council Form CM-110 Requested (Informational Purpose)

Case No.: 3:25-cv-01885-VC

Dear Counsel for Defendants,

Plaintiff fully respects the mechanism of jury adjudication and reserves the right to invoke it at the appropriate stage. At this point, however, Plaintiff's primary focus is to obtain a clear and unequivocal statement of Defendant's position regarding the ultimate procedural resolution of this matter.

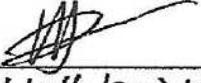

Accordingly, Plaintiff hereby requests that Defendant select one of the following two options and respond via email within seven (7) days:

1. Confirm whether Defendant agrees to proceed to a jury trial;
2. If Defendant prefers to pursue a pretrial settlement, please provide a preliminary settlement proposal that clearly addresses the following elements:
 - A. Scope of resolution (including liability acknowledgment, compensation structure, and institutional or structural commitments): Please specify whether Defendant intends to resolve the matter solely on financial terms, or is also willing to address behavioral responsibility, systemic misconduct, and internal procedural failures.
 - B. Structural commitments or compensation mechanism design: Indicate the proposed form of resolution—e.g., lump-sum payment or staged disbursement; whether a dedicated fund or compensation account will be established; and whether specific individual compensation for Plaintiff's harm is included.
 - C. Compensation framework or valuation model (including preliminary monetary range and logic): Provide an indicative compensation range and explain the underlying basis (e.g., emotional distress, direct and indirect economic losses, or Defendant's systemic failures).
 - D. Expected timeline and procedural roadmap (including method of engagement and role designation): State when Defendant intends to initiate settlement discussions, what communication format is proposed (e.g., written exchange, teleconference, formal session, or third-party involvement), and expected time to reach a preliminary conclusion. Please also designate a specific point of contact or authorized representative.

Please be advised: Plaintiff will not accept any exploratory posture, vague commentary, speculative delay, or strategic ambiguity. Should Defendant fail to clearly and substantively address each of the items outlined above, Plaintiff will deem the submission to be a formalistic response rather than good-faith engagement, and will interpret such failure as de facto consent to jury trial adjudication.

In accordance with Rule 1 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which mandates the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action, failure to respond by the stated deadline will be construed as substantive agreement to proceed with a jury trial.

Sincerely,
Lianlian Porth
